

January Household Happenings

DANCING THROUGH THE DECADES

Remembering Elvis Songs

January 14th @ 11:00 AM

Let's reminisce about Elvis, listening to his music, and talking about his life and accomplishments. Many of our residents are Elvis fans and will remember his music and maybe have even seen him.

Shake Makin'

Date and Time TBD

We will be making our own malts and shakes to help celebrate dancing through the decades

Banana Split Social

January 11th @ 2:30 PM

Come enjoy a banana split with your neighbors, get to know each other and reminisce about the good times of the 50's and going to malt shoppes etc.

Dancing Through the Decades

Every Wednesday Morning

We will watch and learn a dance from a decade every week. From the samba in the 40s, to the jitterbug in the 50's, the twist in the 60's, and the disco in the 70's the residents

Decade Slang

Every Thursday Afternoon

Each week we will learn the slang from that era.

What do our residents remember, what's new, what's funny?!?!?

Name That Tune

Every Wednesday Morning

Each week we will play music from that decade and see if the residents can name the song. Reminisce about the music and enjoy the tunes!

Disco Party

January 17th in the evening

Let's go back to the 60's and engage in a disco themed party with music from this era

